leading A. A. U. magnates. The session of the Athletic Association took place in the field and staff room of the regi-ment, and was attended by a number of representative promoters of military athletics, in-cluding Capt. W. G. Schuyler, staff, President Seventh Regiment A. A.; Lieut, James Schuyler, Company B; Lieut, Robert Mazet, Company D; Sergeant Alanson Wilson, Company F: Corporal A. V. Pringle, Company G; Secretary L. J. F. Rooney, Company A; P. B. Irving, Company K, and George Hull, Company E. They adopted the following significant resolution:

That in view of the purposes for which the military Jan. 11 to 16, 1807, and the desire of this association to aid in its praiseworthy object, and in furtherance of the resolution of the Games Committee of said tournament requesting such action by our associa-tion, we apply to the A. A. U. for the reinstatement of the athletes of our association under suspension.

Host Hughes would not admit that his little gathering had any important bearing on current athletic questions, but it was clear that some weighty matters were discussed between courses. President McMillan conceded as much in a brief interview with THE SUN reporter, but said that while the debatable ground between the associations represented had been considerably smoothed over, nothing tangible had been arrived at. Neither did the conference aim at any positive issue, except what may be reached later.

President McMillan showed to The Sun reporter the resolution adopted at the armory. He said:

the Seventh Regiment Athletic Association in requesting the Metropolitan Association to re-instate their men tends to a happy solution of the troubles that have existed between the two organizations. the troubles that have existed between the two erganizations.

"It is in line with the general policy of the A. A. U. to extend every opportunity for amaieur competition, which can only be done by a general support of proper athietic rules. When such rulings are unjust it is in the power of any association, club, regiment, or individual to have the wrongs redressed by the A. A. President Sullivan of the Metropolitan Association of the A. A. U. was pleasantly surprised to learn the latest news. On reading the resolution he said:

COMING NEW YORK A. C. ELECTION. Only Opposition Talked of Is for the Board of Governors.

This is an important week in New York A. C. politics, as the regular candidates for the com-ing election must be named before next Sunday night. The annual election takes place on Tues day, Jan. 12, and the nominating committee appointed by the board some weeks ago must be heard from officially fifteen days before that date. According to the club politicians the campaign will be comparatively plain sailing. Owing to the fact that the present officials have a big contract on their hands, the building of the new club house, which involves the manipulation of about $1,000,000, the heads of the ticket. it is said, will remain unchanged. The eight governors who were elected last year to serve two terms are as follows: Robert M. Thompson, B. F. O'Connor, Walter S. Bald-win, Robert D. Winthrop, James A. Lynch, James D. Foot, Douglas Henry, and Dr. Seneca D. Powell.

The outgoing governors are: Howard P. Frothingham, James Wills, E. G. Lemon, thomas F. Murtin, Atbert E. Colfax, James H. Haslin, Jr. T. Hamilton Burch, and Orrin M. Beach, Jr. Of the retiring governors only one is prominently mentioned for reflection, James H. Haslin. Otter members said to have found favor with the Nominating Committee are Louis H. Orrand Edward Kearney. The committee is understood to be atili wrestling with the problem of furninshing acceptable candidates for the other five offices, and this is probably where the opposition element, if any, will take issue. Several corridor runnors are to the effect that the wheeling members want more representation, and that while they have Dr. Seneca D. Powell already on the board, they look for a higher office. B. C. Williams and Cycling Captain Gates are mentioned as possible candidates on an opposition ticket.

He was in the pink of condition, and, barring accidents, will be in great form when at 10 o'clock on Christmas night he starts on his task of covering 112 miles in twenty-four hours on a track especially built at the Ice Palace for the performance.

Weston yesterday was dressed in a neat-fitting walking costume, and had on the boots which he wore when winning the Astley belt. Before starting off the veteran made some pleasing remarks in which he expressed his tranks to the public in general for the interest manifested in his coming feat. He slae said that he was confident of success. He walked forty-five laps, each of which, officially measured is 639 4-100 feet. He, therefore, covered 5 miles and 446-1,000 of a mile in 54 minutes 36 seconds. When seen in his dressing room after the peformance he said:

"I never felt better in my life. I must say that they were the fastest five miles I have made since beginning training for the big event on Christmas night. I will be surprised, indeed, if I don't cover more than 112 miles in twenty-four hours."

THE PROPOSED TACHTING LEAGUE

Considered at a Special Meeting of the N. Y. Y. C. and Referred to a Committee. The special meeting of the New York Yacht Club, called at the instance of Capts. Dickerson, Maxwell, and Postley, for the purpose of considering a motion on the advisability of appointing a committee of five to call a convention of delegates from various yacht clubs to form a yachting league, was held last evening at the club house, 67 Madison avenue. Commodore E. M. Brown presided and J. V. S. Oddle acted as secretary. There was a rather small attendance in view of the importance of the meeting, and of those who signed the call for the meeting Vice-Commodore Postley of the Larchmonts was the only one present.

While very little that transpired at the meet ing was told to the reporters, it was learned from an authoritative source that the members, from an authoritative source that the members, as a body, did not wax enthusiastic over the scheme, and seemed to think that it would be just as well if the club kept clear of entangling alliances on the outside. They argued that the club did not hold open regattas, and that it made little or no difference to them what the smaller clubs did.

Those who supported the idea of the proposed new league said that this was a very sellish and narrow way of looking at the matter, as the new league would not only materially promote the yachting interests of the country, but would help the New York Yacht Club as well.

after considerable argument and a short debate, which was participated in by Vice-Commodore Ledyard, Clarkone E. Postiey, E. S. Hatch, ex-Commodore S. Nicholson Kane, and R. Floyd Clark, James D. Smith the Chairman of the America's Cap Committee, presented the following resolution, when was agreed to unanimously.

Resolved, That a committee of seven, one of whom shall be the Commodore by a promised by the clair Ing resolution, which was agreed to unanimously.

Resolved, That a committee of seven, one of whom shall be the Commodore, be appointed by the chair for the purpose of considering the advisability of organizing a yacht-racing leave, the object of which league shall be to establish uniform cooperation on measurement, classification, and racing rules, the promotion of yacht-building, and the encouragement and devolopment of the sport and the preservation of yachting listory and racing records. And thus add committee report tack to the club at a special meeting to be called for that purpose.

While this does not prevent the New York Yacht Club from calling a convention or league of yacht clubs it certainly delays matters, and it is doubtful if the club takes any action on the matter for some time to come.

HOCKEY.

Racquet and Tennis Club Defeats the Union Club by Three Gonis to One.

The first game of hockey on the ice in the series for the challenge cup offered by Mr. Percy Chubb was played at the St. Nicholas Rink last night in the presence of a large number of enthusiastic spectators. The contesting teams represented the Union and the Racquet and Tennis clubs, the latter winning by a score of three goals to one.

Play began shortly after 8 o'clock, and for about twelve minutes the puck was sent skinnming back and forth over the smooth sheet of ice. H. W. Slocum made some brilliant runs for the Racquet and Tennis Club team and was ably seconded by Percy Chubb and his brother Hendon. Finally, on a series of pretty passes, H. Chubb found an onening and shot the rubber between Union's posts for the first goal. Less than a minute after the face-off the puck was again driven toward Union's goal, and in a scrimmage H. Taylor received the rubber from Percy Chubb, and a second goal for the Racquet and Tennis Club resulted.

Then the Unions put some steam into their rushing, and as a result Spaiding de Garmendia, the flacquet's goal iender, had haiffa dozen chances to make difficult stops, for which he received hearty applause. By persistent rushing and good passing the Unions gradually worked the puck close to their opponents' goal, and S. Scheiffin drove it between the posts, making the score 2 to 1 in favor of the flacquet and Tennis Club team. Time for the first half was up shortly afterward, and the team took a rest of ten minutes.

The play in the second half was more scientific. De Garmendia again made a number of beatiful stops in goal, and Slocum rushed-down the rink time and again, only to be blocked by Union's bosts, in a scrimmage, and this proved to be the last goal made in the game. The summary follows:

New York A. C.'s Easy Victory Over the Crescents. The first championship match at Brooklyn of the recently formed United States Amateur Hockey League was decided last evening at the Clermont Avenue Ice Skating Rink, in the presence of an enthusiastic crowd of "rooters," The contending teams were the Crescent A. HAND TENNIS.

The New York A. C.'s Champton Is Hard Pushed to Win.

The first round in the hand tennis tourney for the championship of the New York A. C. was brought to an end yesterday with two matches, in one of which J. H. Haslin had to make the effort of his career to qualify over E. Campion. This was regarded as the most important tie in the preliminary round, as Ha-iin is not only one of the founders of the game, but the recognized champion up to date. The veteran expert took some time to warm up, and he scared his ad-mirers by losing the first game, but once he got his hand in he did some brilliant work, and won the match. The score follows: FIRST GAME.

SEGOND GAME. THIRD GAME. The second match of the afternoon was between Walter Watts and T. G. Wilmarth. The former knew a trifle too much about the game for his opponent, and disposed of him somewhat easily, as follows:

Gossip of the Handball Courts.

Ex Alderman James Dunne of Brooklyn has re-ceived a letter from James Fitzgerald, the irish champion, who says he will sail for this country immediately after the Christmas holidays. W. L. Jones is building up quite a reputation among the Brooklyn experis. Either single handed or as a partner he generally contrives to come out on the winning side. His "club day" efforts result-ed in three clean-cut victories. ed in three clean-cut victories.

The star feature of the "club day" card at the Brooklyn Court was a doubles match in which Champion Cases and John Malcolin opposed exacterinan Dunne and Jere McMahon. The latter pair lost the opening game by four aces, but they then worked tenesther like a piece of machinery and rae out the 'gubber' after a brilliant display of fast and scientific handball. NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN.

The Opinion Is That Consul Potter Will Be The nomination of Chief Consul I. B. Potter for the Presidency of the L. A. W. by the Campaign Committee of the New York State divison, after a consultation with him on Monday, indicates that the Chief Consul is willing to run for the office. Potter's statement that he was not a candidate led to the impression among wheelmen outside of this division that he would not oppose Sterling Elliott. A well-known mem-ber of the division, in discussing the question

"Now that the Potter boom is officially launched I think it will be an easy task for the Campaign Committee of the division to secure sufficient piedges from the different divisions to insure Potter's election. It is felt that the Pennsylvania votes will be given to Potter in exchange for the support of Philadelphia for the national meet.

"Considering the various statements that have been circulated in relation to the objects of the New York State division delegates, wheel men feel that the Campaign Committee will soon be compelled to issue a statement of Potter's plans in the event of his election. It has been stated that an effort is to be made to make the office of President a salaried position next the office of President a salaried position next year, and as Sterling Elliott of Hoston, who is seeking a reflection, has announced that he would not accept the office if salaried, there is considerable speculation as to what position Potter will take. Another statement that is now current is that the delegates of the division wish to remove the office of the Secretary of the L. A. W. from Hoston to this city and displace Secretary Hassett from office, with the object of blacing a prominent member of this division is Secretary Hassett's place.

"If the division is planning these movements as it is reported, its Campaign Committee will likely find such a strong wave of opposition that in spite of its strength the candidacy of Mr. Potter may not receive the support that is anticipated."

A meeting of the Reorganization Committee of the Metropolitan Association of Cycling Clubs will be held on Jan. 15, when delegates will probably be present from all the leading clubs in this vicinity. Steps will be taken to form a central association, to which will be admitted delegates from all the neighboring clubs. The committee instructed to secure the conversation of all the big clubs to join the association and build up a powerful cycling organization declares that it has met with great success.

BUFFALO, Dec. 22.—The Buffalo L. A. W. Association has declared for Isaac B. Potter for President of the national organization. At a meeting held last night the association endorsed the candidacy of the Chief Consul of the State division, and passed a resolution requesting its delegates to the national assembly in February to use their best endeavors to secure his election. The position taken by the local association was that Consul Potter had no right to piedge himself to the support of President Eliot when the Board of Officers have insisted on his running himself.

There is some talk of Charley Murphy and F. F. Soodman meeting again in a series of indoor races. E. C. Baid expects to visit England next February. It is the seneral sentiment among the members of the L. A. W. that the professional riders should be admitted to membership. mitted to membership, KANKAKEE, Ill., Dec. 22.-Sheriff Bernier of Kankakee county has seized Joe Patchen, the great pacing staillon, and forty-eight other trotting and pacing horses and colts. The atachment was in favor of the Commercial National Bank and the Chicago Title and Trust Company as receivers, and calls for over $11. 000. Joe Patchen and the other stock were the property of John C. Taylor of St. Louis, but he transferred them to his brother, Joseph Taylor, of San Antonio, about one year ago, after giving a chattel mortrage on them to the Third National Bank of St. Louis. Some of the other personal property was also attached. The value of the property seized is estimated at over $50,000.

WILL THERE BE A FIGHT? Gov. Morton Instructs Speriff Doht as to His Duties To-night. ALBANY, Dec. 22 .- By direction of Gov. Morton his private secretary, Col. Cole, to-day sent a letter to Sheriff Doht of Queens county, in which he said: "It having been brought to the attention of effect that a violation of law is intended or is likely to be committed in Long Island City, in likely to be committed in Long Island City, in the county of Queens, on the night of Dec. 23, 1896, to wit., that certain persons known as Kid Lavigne and Charley McKeever are to engage in a prize fight in violation of the provisions of chapter 301, Laws of 1896; therefore.

"I am directed by the Governor to call your attention to the fact that such intended puglistic encounter is announced and is a matter of public notoriety, and to forther advise you that as Sheriff of said county of Queens you are expected and required to take all necessary measures, and to employ such force as may be necessary, to prevent any violation of the law in such puglistic exhibition, and to arrest all persons who may engage in or aid and abet such violation of the law."

There seemed to be no doubt at Long Island City last night that the fight between Lavigne and McKeever would take place to-night. The last time Sheriff boht summoned a posse to enforce the law against prize fighting at that city the Board of Supervisors objected to the Sheriff's bhil, and he has since said that he would not care to send a posse again in the city when it had a police force to enforce the law.

Thomas O'Rourke and Senator Timethy Suillwan, it is said, were in Long Island City vesterday. O'Rourke is said to have contended that the chairs and fixtures in the hall were his property, while Suilwan, it is claimed, asserted that he had a three years lease of the building. The man who bought the chairs in the cinb house says he has the bills for them, and claims that he still owns the property.

President Anderson of the Mariborough Club issued a statement last night to the effect that he has been assured by the District Attorney and Sheriff of Long Island City that so long as the provides for the safety of his patrons and conderts his exhibition under chauter 301 of the Penal Code, signed by his Excellency, Gov. Morton, there will be no interference so long as there is no brutality shown in the exhibition.

ROHEMIAN CLUB BOUTS,

Members See Some Lively Sport Among Local Boxers.

An interesting programme was provided for the weekly boxing show at the Behemian Sporting Club last night. The attendance was large, and some of the members attended in full dress. The bouts were between local men.

The first "go" was between George Fagan of this city and Jack Foley of Brocklyn. They agreed to box six rounds at catch weights agreed to box six rounds at catch weights, Both boys went at the hammer and tongs. Foley had a shade the better of it on swings, but Fagan evened things up with two good right handers on the jaw. In the last two rounds Foley used both right and left with good effect, but couldn't reach the right spot. The verdict was a draw.

The next bout, also limited to six rounds, at catch weights, introduced Jim Moran of Harlem and Willie Melbmaid of this city. The "20" was a tame one. The lads were inclined to stand each other off with counters and leads. The decision was a draw.

each other off with counters and leads. The de-cision was a draw.

Emil Moore of the Fourth ward next faced Nelson Frazier. The bout was also for six rounds at 120 pounds. Frazier only lately left the amateur ranks. The boys fought hard, but Frazier could not overcome Moore's advantage. The latter got the verdict.

Robert Gormiey and Jack Brennan, both of this city, came together next in a six-round "go" at catch weights. The struggle was a hard one from the start, and the referee's ver-dict was a draw. dict was a draw.

Billy Rotenfor I of Chicago, Tommy White's pupil, and Al Albert of this city figured in the final "go" of eight rounds at catch weights.

A number of well-known figure skaters are on the warpath, thirsting for the scalp of the National Skating Association. A council of war is to be held in the Clermont Avenue Kink, Brooklyn, to be presided over by Frank Swift, a veteran at the game, and one of the judges at last year's competitions, held under the auspices of the National Association.

It is claimed that under the present regime competitors are allowed to whirl their limbs without regard to uniformity, and, furthermore, some contestants make circles, eights, and threes as big as balloons, whereas others cut these figures as if they had been practising around their hats.

Chief Swift insists that there should be some effort at similarity, and to effect this the meeting has been called. Those who, the veteran says, will attend are Herbert Evans, the present champion; Col. C. E. Fuller of Boston, H. Beisshart, representing Germany; George Meagher of Canada. Frank P. Good and E. W. Burr of this city. competitors are allowed to whirl their limbs

OARSMEN IN SESSION. Harlem River Men Appoint a Committee

Despite the stormy weather there was a genrous response to the invitation for a special meeting of the Harlem Regatta Association which was held last night at the Malborough Hotel. It was called for the purpose of discussing the proposed site on the Speedway for the carsmen. The delegates present were: Harlem Rowing Club, Joseph Maner: Nassau Book and John Dempsey; Metropolitan Boat Club, Julius D. Mahr; Dauntiess Rowing Club, Dr. E. W. Knickersbocker and H. W. Waiter; Union Boat Club, S. Doian and Thomas F. Hefferuan.

The Friendships, First Bohemians, Columbia University, and New York A. C. did not send representatives. The meeting was called to order by President Mahr, who stated the object of the meeting, and introduced George Burt Heath, President of the Atalanta Boat Club. Heath, who is at the head of a movement to try to get a bill through the Legislature giving the local authorities the power to grant to the oarsmen a permanent home along the banks of the Harlem River, asked the joint support of the association. Henry Behrens, ex-President of the Harlem Regatta Association, brought the discussion to a close by offering this motion:

It is the sense of the Harlem Regatta Association that the Chairman appoint a committee of five to investigate concerning a permanent location along the banks of the Harlem River for the caramen.

President Mahr appointed the following committee of the Harlem River for the caramen.
